

The Community Arts Program with the Centre for Continuing and Distance Education at the University of Saskatchewan is partnering with CODE to provide FREE Digital Storytelling Workshops

These two workshops will be held in two formats for two different groups:

Workshop 1

Student/participant workshop – a full day, hands-on program designed for delivery in class.

Time: Sunday, October 18, 2009, 10:30 am – 4:00 pm

Location: Room 3D85 College of Agriculture Building

Max number of participants: 30

Workshop 2

Educator workshops – a 3-hour hands-on program to provide educators with tools to deliver a digital storytelling workshop to their students.

Time: Monday, October 19, 2009, 6:30 – 9:30 pm

Location: Room 3D85 College of Agriculture Building

Maximum number of participants: 15

CODE in collaboration with NFB present Canada CODE Digital Storytelling Workshops

CODE, the Cultural Olympiad's digital edition, and the National Film Board are collaborating to deliver Digital Storytelling Workshops to communities across Canada to promote Canada CODE. In these workshops bilingual facilitators will teach participants how to:

- take effective digital photographs;
- use critical thinking skills to interpret stories from images;
- write short stories using minimal text;
- create a storyboard;
- remix photographs and words to create an original story;
- choose and add sounds to communicate a message.

Registration information:

(There is no cost to participate in these workshops, however due to space limitations you must be registered to participate)

Phone: 966-5539

Email: community.arts@usask.ca

Your words. Your Photos. This Canada. It's the stuff we're made of.

Upload and share with the world.
www.vancouver2010.com/CODE

Media Releases

Vancouver 2010 invites Canadians to share their photos and words about their country and neighbourhoods through innovative online digital scrapbook called Canada CODE

Create your own 30-second digital vision of Canada with Vancouver 2010 Cultural Olympiad. Best of Canada CODE Remixes to be shown to the world on public screens at Games time.

Canada CODE Description

Canada CODE is a giant digital mash-up of photos, text and observations from and about the very people who live, work and play here. It's the stuff we're made of — our daily lives and neighbourhoods — and anyone with access to the internet and a desire to explore, create or contribute can be a part of this grassroots digital collaboration. Some may even see a bit of the spotlight in 2010 when a selection of the best Canada CODE content will be screened for thousands of spectators and athletes during the Vancouver 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games. Canada CODE is the first project of CODE, the Cultural Olympiad's digital edition, designed to creatively engage audiences in Canada and around the globe at a time when Canada is opening its arms to the world.

CODE in collaboration with NFB present Canada CODE Digital Storytelling Workshops

What is Canada CODE?

Canada CODE is a collection of words and photos by Canadians collaborating online to welcome the world in 2010. It's a creation of CODE, the Cultural Olympiad's digital edition, supported by Bell, with the National Film Board as a major collaborator. Canada CODE invites Canadians everywhere to connect with and explore this ever-evolving blueprint of the country. During the Vancouver 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games, a selection of these stories will hit the big screen for the world to see. www.vancouver2010.com/code

Connect. Create. Collaborate.

For more information visit www.vancouver2010.com/code.

