Holy Cross Wall of Honour adding four members

Four candidates will be honoured Friday as the newest members of the Holy Cross Wall of Honour. The wall recognizes Holy Cross High School graduates who have attained excellence in a particular field of interest or career and have had their achievements noted at the national or international level. This year's inductees are:

- Dr. Keith Fagnou (posthumous) – Scientist/Chemist, attended 1986 -1989;
- Blaine Hart – Actor/Playwright, attended 1971-1975;
- Jean Pierre Seguin – Athletics – Men's Epee (World Champion), attended 1989-1991;
- Jason Warick – Athletics – Marathon Runner & Journalist/Humanitarian, attended 1989-1991.

The Wall of Honour, located at the south end of the school's cafeteria, was created in 2000. After Friday's ceremony it will consist of 38 inductees. The outstanding men and women on the Wall of Honour serve as role models for all Holy Cross students.
